

Hero Appreciation Day

OVER 200 COMBAT INJURED U.S. SOLDIERS TO BE HONORED AT THE FIRST ANNUAL SHOW OF SUPPORT HERO APPRECIATION DAY AT BROOKE ARMY MEDICAL CENTER

DATE: MAY 21, 2008

TIME: 6 PM UNTIL 9 PM

LOCATION: BROOKE ARMY MEDICAL CENTER, SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

SAN ANTONIO, TX, May 21, 2008 – Over 200 soldiers recovering from serious combat injuries, and their families, will be able to escape their rigorous rehabilitation schedules for a day, and receive a Texas Style “Thank You” from Show of Support – a Texas based organization that provides injured military personnel with a show of Texas’ gratitude. The soldiers and their families will enjoy a cookout and entertainment as well as honors befitting the Modern Day Heroes that they are.

“These men and women were willing to give their lives for us. That is bravery that I can only dream of having,” said Terry Johnson, President and Founder of Show of Support. “I know that I, nor many of the people I have spoken to, know the right way to say thank you, or to repay them for this loyalty - but we knew that we had to do something. We decided that the best thing we could do is to help them, if only for one day, to take their minds off the pain that they are going through on their road to recovery.” Many of the soldiers have returned from tours in Iraq and Afghanistan with injuries ranging from broken bones, loss of limbs, PTSD, TBI, to life-altering third degree burns.

“We encourage anyone able to be in San Antonio on this date to attend”, says Wallace Craig of West Texas Troop Salute, “the experience of being around these young men and women who have given so much for us is a profound one. The best gift of encouragement you can give them is.....”Thanks, you won’t be forgotten”.

Show of Support Military Hunt Inc. and Christmas For Our Troops [West Texas Troop Salute] are 501(c)3 non-profit organization dedicated to thanking the men and women of our armed services returning from global-wide missions for their service and for protecting our freedoms
